

A CITY OF LONDON EVENT ON CLIMATE AND SUSTAINABILITY

Wednesday 18 May at 4.45pm-6.30pm hosted at Birkbeck, University of London

Join the City of London Livery Climate Action Group, World Traders and The Financial Services Club together with Birkbeck, University of London for an evening of discussion on
'Do laws and professions impede climate change actions?'

With guest speakers:

Alderman Emma Edhem (Chair) - Law, Policy, and Practices
Professor Stewart Motha - Law and Responsibility to Future Generations

Dr Karin Shields - Management Sustainability Reporting

Dr Simon Pooley – Climate Driving Wildfires and Bioinvasions

We will explore barriers imposed by the law and how regulations could be changed to support positive environmental action.

All are welcome to join the conversation.
